Recommendation Letter

This my pleasure to write the letter of recommendation in reference to Habib Kedir Wakushe who obtained BSc, degree in Agricultural Economics from Wolaita Sodo University. I evaluated his academic performance during in the four years stay at university and he archived attractive result in his academic careers. He is an ethical, sociable, outstanding, motivated and active enough that I come across through teaching, advising project works and evaluations. He has an extraordinary ability to exhibit logical thinking, solving problems at hand and give programmatic solution to new perspectives in a changing world in individually and in team workings. In addition, I was also able to give my witness for great potential to change theoretical knowledge to actual phenomena in the real world.

Furthermore, I found him an excited and hardworking individual that I testify, possess courage and willingness to share his capacity rationally to others. Therefore, to utilize his knowledge in Agricultural Economics and related research activities, I recommend him for research institutions, government and non-government organizations and others developmental institutions working in his profession and related fields.

Subject: Letter of Recommendation for Mr. Habib Kadir Wakushe

I am writing this letter to provide my strongest recommendation for Mr. Habib Kadir. I have known Mr. Habib for the past four years at Wolaita Sodo University within the Department of Agricultural Economics. I initially supervised him as a student in several of my advanced courses, including Microeconomics, Econometrics, Operational Research, and Computer Applications in Agricultural Economics. More recently, I had the pleasure of serving as his research adviser. Throughout this time, I have witnessed his exceptional drive, integrity, and academic potential.

Mr. Habib's academic performance has been consistently high. Beyond his individual grades, I was particularly impressed by his contributions to group projects. He possesses excellent communication and facilitation skills, often taking a leadership role to ensure collaborative tasks were completed successfully. These interpersonal strengths, combined with his technical proficiency in econometric tools, make him a valuable asset to any team.

Mr. Habib is a dedicated young professional who demonstrates both the character and the technical capability to excel in any institution or organization. I recommend him without reservation and wish him great success in all his future endeavors. If you require any further information regarding his qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me.

With kind regards,

Abera Abebe (Ph.D.)
